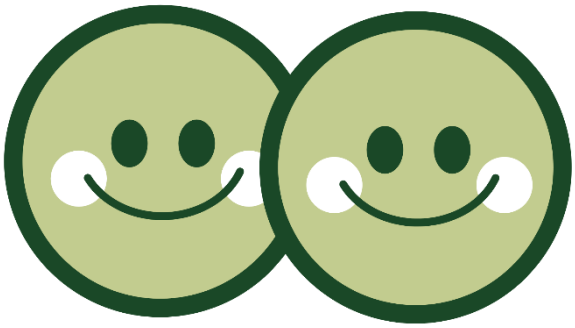
Meet my clone!

What is your clone like? Is it like you or completely different?

Choose three adjectives from the word list and describe your clone.

Describe one situation per adjective.

For example:


My clone is lazy. Every time it's time to clean its room it says its head hurts or it has a stomach ache, then I have to clean it. When I'm done, my clone suddenly feels so much better. I always fall for this.