

LUND
UNIVERSITY

Registration for our symposium Why do we choose the Internet instead of the doctor next door? is now open!

Dates: 25-26 April 2024, Lunch-to-Lunch

Venue: LUX-building, Helgonavägen 3 in Lund – room C121 (ground floor)

The symposium will focus on findings from the project Why do we choose the Internet instead of the doctor next door?, financed by Marcus and Amalia Wallenberg Foundation. The symposium is co-organised with Birgit Rausing Centre for Medical Humanities at Lund University.

Useful information, including the programme with invited speakers, is found here:
Why do we choose the Internet instead of the doctors next door? | Projects \(lu.se\)

The symposium is free of charge and will include light lunches and refreshments both days.

Please register at your earliest convenience: Registration | Projects \(lu.se\)

We will get back to you within 10 working days with a confirmation if you secured a spot.

We hope to see you 25-26 April in Lund!
